MEMOIR

REV. JOHN ERVIN THOMPSON.

The subject of this memoir was a man of quiet spirit and bore a good name. He was self-sacrificing and keenly alive to the needs of the common people. Always a welcome guest in the best homes of the pastoral charges he served, he did not neglect the poor and they too were glad at his coming. As a preacher, he was sometimes strong, always edifying, and clear and persuasive in his purpose to win men to Christ. He attained more than average success in revivals and usually those converted under his ministry became useful members of the church.

Brother Thompson, the son of Hugh and Lucy Thompson, his wife, was born in Robeson County, N. C., January 21, 1840. One of a family of five boys and four girls, he was brought up on his father's farm, and attended first the common schools of the county, then a high school near the present site of Maxton, and Trinity College, which he left in the spring of 1862 to enter the Confederate Army. He enlisted as a private in Company E, 51st Regiment North Carolina troops, Clingman's Brigade, and served through the war. He was in the battles around Charleston, S. C., and Richmond, Va., and was taken prisoner at Cold Harbor in June, 1864, and carried to Elmira, N. Y., where he remained a prisoner until July, 1865. He was a good soldier in the ranks, a man who did his duty, as did his ancestors who came from England before our revolution and fought in both our wars with Great Britain.

But it is his religious life and the forty-seven years he preached the gospel that especially invites our attention. Both his parents and grandparents were old-fashioned Methodists who believed in a religion that produced results—that made people both good and happy. Brother Thompson himself was converted at about the age of seventeen one night in his room during a revival meeting in old Providence Church (now Asbury) on the Robeson Circuit, conducted by Revs. Paul J. Carraway and Joseph B. Martin, and joined the church, of course. He was licensed to preach in September, 1865, and was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference at its session in Raleigh the same year, Bishop Early presiding. He was ordained deacon at Wilmington in 1867, and elder at New Bern in 1869 by Bishop Doggett, who held both conferences. His appointments were: Cumberland Circuit, 1866; Asheboro Circuit, 1867; Uwharrie Circuit, 1868-69; Smithville (now Southport), 1870; Smithfield Circuit, 1871-73; Rolesville Circuit, 1874; Cary Circuit, 1875-76; Granville Circuit, 1877-80; Amity (now Mattamuskeet) Circuit, 1881; Clinton Circuit, 1882-84; Buckhorn Circuit, 1885-88; Snow Hill Circuit, 1889-90; Jonesboro Circuit, 1891-93; Mt. Gilead Circuit, 1894-97; Aberdeen Circuit, 1898-1901; St. Johns Station (Goldsboro), 1902-1903. With great fidelity he served all these charges, and in them all the people loved him much. Pure, gentle, firm, he lived the gospel he preached, and the people took constant knowledge of him that he had been with God.

At the session of our Conference held at Goldsboro in 1903, on account of failing health, Brother Thompson asked for and was granted, the superannuate relation. From then until a short time before his death he lived in his own home in the town of Aberdeen, where all the folks, notably the Pages, were kind to him and regarded his presence in their midst as a benediction.

On November 14, 1866, Brother Thompson was happily married to Miss Jennie Buie of Fayetteville, N. C., the ceremony being performed in Hay Street Church by the pastor, Rev. T. W. Guthrie. They lived happily together with the children that were born to them until 1881, when she was called from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant, and her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Amity Church in Hyde County, where her husband was then pastor. Soldier of the Cross that he was, it was fitting that he should leave his beloved dead on the line of march as he went from place to place fighting the good fight that should earn at last a golden crown and a mansion not made with hands.

In 1882, Brother Thompson again plighted his troth to a worthy daughter of good old Fayetteville, Miss Mary Buie, sister of his first wife. She, too, was a real helpmeet to him and a devoted mother, and it was given him to enjoy her companionship till his Lord called him over the river. His children still living are: J. E. Thompson, Hamlet, N. C.; Mrs. W. C. Kinsland, Waynesville, N. C.; Mrs. Archie McLaughlin, Riverdale, Ga.; Mrs. S. E. Mercer and Mrs. A. M. Norton, Maxton, N. C.; Albert L. Thompson, Fayetteville, N. C., and Gerald B. Thompson, Princeton, West Va. There survives him also a brother, Rev. Wesley Thompson, McDonald, N. C.

In his last illness Brother Thompson was in the home of his son Albert in Fayetteville, and every attention of skilled physician, trained nurse and loving wife and children was his. Patiently and gently he waited for his change, and heard the last clear call on December 27, 1913. The next day, which was Sunday, he was buried from Hay Street Church, Fayetteville, the services being conducted by Rev. W. R. Royall, the pastor, assisted by Rev. T. H. Sutton, of Siler City. And they laid his body away in old Cross Creek Cemetery to await the resurrection morn, when he shall see "The Far-Away Home of the Soul," of which he so delighted to sing.

During the four years Brother Thompson was on the Granville Circuit I was on the adjacent Oxford Circuit, and we frequently helped each other in our revival meetings. I never had a more genial associate or more faithful fellow laborer. Later, I was eight years his presiding elder, and there was only sweet comradeship and earnest work for the Master in it all. I knew his home life, and it was simply beautiful. He was the most devoted of husbands and the most loving of fathers. May God comfort his widow and each of his children. I look forward to meeting him again in our Father's House, where we shall talk over the incidents of our journey and gladly recall our joint labors for the Master.

J. T. GIBBS.

REPORTS

INSURANCE COMMITTEE.

The North Carolina Conference at its 1913 session at Oxford, N. C., having been informed of the action of the Western North Carolina Conference in regard to a plan for carrying insurance on church property, the North Carolina Conference took the following action:

"On motion of N. H. D. Wilson it was ordered that a committee of five be appointed, who shall consider the matter of insurance on church property and shall, if they deem it wise, either themselves or in conjunction with the committee appointed by the Western North Carolina Conference, establish an association by which the church may insure its own property."

In conformity with this resolution, Bishop McCoy named the following committee: C. S. Wallace, B. B. Adams, J. F. Bruton, W. B. Cooper, and L. S. Covington.

The committee from the Western North Carolina Conference, having full power to act, formed themselves into a board of directors, and having met with the requirements of the law organized the Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company with the following officers: E. A. Cole, President; Dorman Thompson, Vice-President; W. E. Webb, Secretary and Treasurer.

Since the time the company began business we, the undersigned of your committee, have looked into the organization and plans and find that the company is working on sound business principles and that every avenue is defended to protect the interest of the Church, and the best methods have been put into effect to give the Church protection at the least possible cost. The Western North Carolina Conference has extended to this Conference the opportunity to share equally in the benefits of the company together with equal representation on the board of directors.

Your committee, inasmuch as the Western North Carolina Conference has taken the initiative in this matter and has assumed the burden of the organization of the company for the benefit of Methodism in North Carolina, worked out all the details and at the same time extended to the North Carolina Conference a full share of all the benefits derived from the coöperation and a joint control of the affairs of the company, make the following recommendations:

1. That this Conference endorse the action of the Western North Carolina Conference in the matter of organization of the company and the plans adopted for the conduct of the business.

2. That this Conference elect five directors, to be recommended to the Western North Carolina Conference for election on the board of directors of the company.

3. That the matter of complete Church control be safeguarded in every particular and the board of directors be requested and instructed to thoroughly investigate, safeguard and protect every avenue by which the Church can be deprived of the complete control of the affairs of the company.

4. That the preachers and laymen give their hearty support to the officers of the company in securing business. There is only a small per cent of our church property insured, a matter which should no longer be neglected.

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE—No. 1.

Your committee begs leave to report that temperance reform is making progress faster this year than ever before. In 1906 three States, Maine, Kansas and North Dakota, had enacted state-wide prohibition; in 1907 Georgia and Oklahoma adopted it; in 1908 Mississippi and North Carolina; in 1909, Tennessee; in 1912, West Virginia; and in 1914, Virginia, Colorado, Oregon, Washington and Arizona, making fourteen States in all, five of which have adopted it this year. These States have a population of twenty millions, approximately one-fifth of the population of our country, and more than thirty million people live in dry territory of other States made dry under local option laws. Such wonderful progress ought to stimulate faith in the worst infidel, ought to encourage every enemy of the saloon and distillery and ought to give an inspiration to the workers in God's kingdom that will send them forth as mighty evangelists of prohibition to hasten the final victory of national constitutional prohibition.

It is a striking fact that this great progress of prohibition in the last seven years is contemporaneous with the growth of the Anti-Saloon League, which organization we believe has been largely influential in bringing about this condition of affairs. We desire to commend the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League and its superintendent for the splendid work that has been accomplished in this State, and we urge our pastors and churches to fully coöperate with the league in its every effort to exterminate the beverage liquor traffic.

The doom of the liquor traffic is near at hand. Medical science has given it a death blow; commerce has protested against it; labor has learned that it decreases efficiency, and the Church of God is fighting it on every hand. We pray God to hasten the day when it shall be outlawed and ours shall be a saloonless nation.

We have considered the proposed act recommended by the Anti-Saloon League Executive Committee to prohibit the receipt and delivery of liquor for beverage purposes, and we recommend that this Conference endorse the same and petition the General Assembly to pass it.

We have read and considered the Sheppard-Hobson resolution pending in Congress. This resolution has passed the Judiciary Committee of the House and is now on the House Calendar. If passed by a two-thirds majority of both houses it submits national prohibition to the States, and if then ratified by three-fourths of the States it becomes a part of our Federal Constitution. We recommend that the Conference endorse this measure and call upon the North Carolina Congressmen to support it.

We note that the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League will hold its next biennial convention in Raleigh, January 13-14, 1915, and we ask our churches, Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues who, under the Anti-Saloon League constitution are entitled to representation, to send delegates to this body.

Your committee has considered the petition referred to it touching the use of fermented and unfermented wines in the communion service, and recommends that wherever practicable our churches and pastors use the unfermented grape juice.

Your committee recommends that R. L. Davis, having been re-elected by the Anti-Saloon League Executive Committee, be appointed Superintendent of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League.

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE—No. 2.

In view of the fact that the law of our church requires all who are admitted on trial to agree to abstain from the use of tobacco, your committee recommends that the Conference request those who have in hand the management of the Conference Trinity College alumni banquets that no cigars be furnished the guests on these occasions.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Sunday School Board desires to submit the following report:

1. We appreciate the coöperation of all who have aided us in any way in carrying out the work we had outlined for the past year. We are glad to report a steady increase in Sunday School membership, organized Bible classes, Teacher Training classes and Standard Sunday Schools. There are approximately three hundred Wesley Bible Classes enrolled with the Wesley Bible Class Department, which have an enrollment of over six thousand members. We have between three hundred and four hundred students who have been engaged in systematic teacher training work during the year.

2. We are glad to express to you our thanks for the increase in the special offering for Sunday School extension taken on the fourth Sunday in January. The amount realized from this source was a little more than $500. We sincerely trust that our pastors and presiding elders will aid us in increasing this amount to not less than $1,000 during the coming January. The amount paid in this year was paid by less than one-third of our schools; if each school would do something it would aid us materially in solving our financial problems. This fourth Sunday in January deserves to become a popular one and we believe that it will.

3. Briefly stated, our goal for the next quadrennium for the Sunday Schools of our Conference is as follows:

A federation of all Wesley Bible Classes of our Conference, with an annual meeting of the same.

Every district thoroughly organized with departmental officers.

Every circuit holding an annual Sunday School Institute under the direction of the pastor.

A net gain in Sunday School membership of at least 4,000 each year.

An increase of 1,000 members each year in our organized classes.

An increase each year of 1,000 in the cradle roll membership.

An increase of 300 members annually in the Home Department.

An offering each year of at least $5,000 for missions through the Sunday Schools.

A Children's Day and offering in every Sunday School each year.

A definite effort to bring about the conversion of every one connected with our Sunday Schools and a deepening of the spiritual life of all our people.

4. It is our purpose to be of service in every way possible, and we plead for a sympathetic and earnest response from each of you in our endeavor to carry out these plans. This may be done by helping us to get an offering from every Sunday School on the fourth Sunday in January, as many of you have done for the past two years; by continuing the fine work you have been doing in behalf of Children's Day; by attending the institutes and conferences held for Sunday School workers; by making use of our Field Secretary in every possible manner and falling in with the plans which he may announce from time to time. With the January offering increased to $1,000 a year and the Children's Day offering brought up to about $3,000 per annum, the finances of the board will be sufficient to carry on the work as at present contemplated.

5. An announcement of interest to all will be the great interest Trinity College, through President Few, is manifesting in Sunday School work. Plans are maturing for some definite work at that institution on a larger scale than at present carried on. Our Field Worker is to move to Durham and through the kindness of Trinity will have an office and some office help. We believe that this step will eventually mean one of the greatest forward steps ever known in our work.

6. We also wish to say that we appreciate the aid of Trinity College in making it possible for us to have Drs. Hamill and Bulla with us for an institute last June. Our regret is that more of our people did not attend.

7. We invite the attention of all to the new chapter on Sunday Schools as found in the new Discipline.

8. The presence and address of Dr. Hamill at this Conference and upon our anniversary occasion we appreciate greatly. We rejoice in the additional honor which has come to him during the past summer, that of being elected honorary head of the International Sunday School Association.

9. You have our sincere thanks for the splendid earnestness manifested by so many of you in behalf of Sunday Schools, and pray that the spirit of achievement may continue and that the advancement of our Sunday Schools may always be in His name, for it is only in that name that we can do the great work He has committed to us.

Respectfully submitted,

W. B. COOPER, Chairman.

C. F. BLAND, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION.

We have received a statement from the Educational Commission appointed at the last General Conference. We are pleased to know that they have already established a Theological Seminary in Atlanta, have secured about two and a half or three million dollars with which to build a new university, and that Bishop Candler has consented to assume control of the founding of this university.

We are deeply grateful to Mr. A. G. Candler for his gift of a million dollars to this great work of the church, and trust that all of our members, even the poorest, may give of their means as God has prospered them.

We commend the faculty of our Theological Seminary in Atlanta to our young preachers, and request that they attend our own institution.

A new and nobler era of our educational history has begun. We urge that every minister and member of our church meet faithfully and joyously the duties which it brings to us.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

The report of Trinity College reveals a steady growth, showing an enrollment of students for the past year of 652 and 42 teachers.

We most heartily endorse the movement to provide adequate facilities for the education of women at Trinity. We pledge ourselves to do all in our power to make possible this great work. *

We congratulate the college in securing as the head of the department of Biblical Literature Dr. Franklin N. Parker. Your board is deeply interested in this department and hopes that it will be enlarged as rapidly as possible.

This Conference has provided for the raising of a fund to be loaned to our young men who are studying for the ministry. This fund is available this year, and the board is ready to render such help as they can.

Your board is deeply grateful for the high standing of intellectual and moral life at Trinity, but most of all do we rejoice in her allegiance to the Church and her labors to bring in the kingdom. We believe in the present management, and most heartily endorse all for which Trinity College stands and is striving to achieve.

GREENSBORO COLLEGE FOR WOMEN.

The report of Greensboro College for Women shows an enrollment of 276 students and a faculty of 23 members.

This college, through the years, has given our daughters the best in educational life. We believe in her faculty, endorse her work, and appreciate the good work of the new president.

We hope that the Board of Trustees will provide some way so that we, with our sister Conference, may liquidate all indebtedness. We trust that no further indebtedness may be incurred until all of the present obligations may be satisfied.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

The report of Louisburg Female College shows a total enrollment of 138 students.

We recommend that this Conference join with the President and Trustees of Louisburg Female College in a request to the General Board of Education for classification as a junior college.

We recommend that the Board of Trustees desist from incurring more debt until the full amount of the present indebtedness is paid.

CAROLINA COLLEGE.

The report of Carolina College shows a loss in attendance of number of students, there being only 67 students this year and a faculty of 12. Your board has appointed a committee, consisting of A. P. Tyler, Judge Walter Neal, and S. E. Mercer, to examine the charter and report to our next Annual Conference the exact relation of this institution to the Church.

LITTLETON FEMALE COLLEGE.

Reports 101 students, 14 teachers, and property valued at $75,000. There seems to be a steady purpose to develop the young women in moral and intellectual life. We commend the Sunday School teachers' courses and the other forward movements of the institution.

We recommend the following appropriations for the coming year:

Trinity College	$5,000
Louisburg Female College.....	2,000
Greensboro College for Women.....	2,000
Carolina College	2,500
General Board of Education.....	3,695
Total	$15,195

We recommend that same amount as last year be apportioned to the districts for Ministerial Education Loan Fund.

We recommend the appointment of the committee, consisting of J. C. Wooten, J. M. Rhodes, and H. M. North, to meet committees from the Western North Carolina Conference and the Holston Conference looking to the establishment of a summer school of theology to be located in the mountains of Western North Carolina.

We recommend the confirmation of G. T. Adams as a Trustee of Greensboro College for Women; B. B. Adams, J. N. Cole, and J. H. Shore as Trustees of Louisburg Female College, and Herbert McClammy to succeed C. C. Covington, resigned, as a Trustee of Carolina College.

We request the Bishop to appoint W. W. Peele Head Master of Trinity Park School, S. E. Mercer President of Carolina College, J. M. Rhodes President of Littleton Female College, J. L. Cuningim, Vanderbilt.

ANDREW P. TYER, Chairman.

J. C. WOOTEN, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals wishes to give first place to the Raleigh Christian Advocate, since we believe it to be of prime importance. While we take great pride in it and are glad because of its success, yet we realize that much can still be done to increase its efficiency. The fact that it shows an increase in the number of its subscribers and that it reports a net gain in spite of the financial reverses that we are now facing speaks well for its management. The goal is far from being reached yet, however. We should never be content until the church organ is in the home of every member of our church. We therefore recommend that each pastor or the presiding elder bring to our official boards the question of making a house-to-house canvass for the purpose of placing the Advocate in every Methodist home. We are gratified with the success of the plan used last year in apportioning a certain number of subscribers to each pastoral charge, and we trust that those who failed to bring up their quota may strive to do so at the earliest possible date. We also request the presiding elders to make a similar allotment for next year.

We recommend that the pastors of the Conference contribute more largely in a literary way to the Advocate. An added interest might also be obtained by having more frequent reports from the various fields of labor.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS.

Your board wishes also to emphasize the importance of the other publications of our Church. Especially do we insist that the pastors make a more strenuous effort to increase the circulation of the Christian Advocate. We do not see how any pastor can afford to be without it. We shall never become efficient workers until we catch a vision of the full scope of our great work and feel the thrill of joy that comes with our ever-increasing success throughout our founder's parish—the world. Brilliantly edited, true to the Church, throughout all of our recent controversies, this paper deserves all of the emphasis we can possibly place upon it. It goes without saying that every heart here thrills with pride as we recognize in its able editor one of our sons whose love for his mother Conference increases with the years.

Due emphasis in their turn would we give to the Methodist Review, which is so well known as to need no description at our hands, the Epworth Era, which is indispensable to the League worker, and the Missionary Voice. All of these publications fill a unique place in their various lines and can hardly be dispensed with. We should like to urge that more attention be given to literature in our Sunday Schools. Such papers as the Children's Visitor are a delightful treat to the pupils of our schools, especially the pupils of our country schools.

We suggest that wherever practicable bulletins of church work be published at stated intervals. In this way our people might be instructed as to the progress of their work and inspired to further effort. The Circuit Rider, published by Rev. J. M. Ormond, of Hillsboro, is recommended as a splendid example of what can be accomplished in this line.

READING CIRCLES.

We wish to commend the work that has been done to increase the reading facilities of the ministers. We are glad to hear that circulating libraries have been formed in some of the districts, and we urge the presiding elders to make every possible effort to establish them in all of our districts. No matter how bright or well trained a mind may be it must be fed or it will become unable to think clearly. We call especial attention to the list of books for ministers prepared by Dr. F. N. Parker and Bishop J. C. Kilgo. This list embraces books that will develop all sides of a minister's life and is to be heartily commended. Any further information desired will be gladly furnished by the School of Biblical Literature at Trinity College upon application to Dr. Parker.

PUBLISHING HOUSE.

We are gratified at the report of the Publishing House for the year ending February, 1914. This report shows a net increase in sales of $70,901.27, which is nearly double the increase of last year. We urge that our people restrict their purchases entirely if possible to our own publishing houses, since we believe that our literature is better suited to the needs of our people and also since the profits go to the support of our needy. The Richmond house continues to justify its establishment and we urge our people to patronize it.

A. L. ORMOND, President.

H. E. SPENCE, Secretary.

[8]

COMMITTEE ON LAY ACTIVITIES.

The Committee on Lay Activities begs to submit to you the following report:

The General Conference has made the Conference Lay Leader and District Lay Leaders members of this committee.

We first pledge our lives to the cause of Christ and our best abilities to the Church. It is our desire not to lead the Church, but to assist our elders and preachers in Christian work. In evangelistic services we want you to endeavor to train the laymen to pray in public, to help you in revival work, prayer meeting, Sunday School, or any other service you may have in mind. In the financial part, if you will bring the various causes we are supporting before the congregations, it is our part to see that the money is collected. We still say that if the stewards love the Lord they will look after all financing. The Discipline calls for that. This committee also suggests that the Committee on Social Service be a live one. How many of our people join the church then drift away to the attractions of the world because we do not give them a friendly greeting? Brothers, these men whose names I mention below are the District Lay Leaders:

Dr. W. P. Few.....	Durham, N. C.
C. R. Pugh.....	Elizabeth City, N. C.
E. S. Yarborough.....	Duke, N. C.
Y. T. Ormond.....	Kinston, N. C.
F. B. McKinne.....	Louisburg, N. C.
E. H. Gibson.....	Laurinburg, N. C.
J. C. Hardy	Norlina, N. C.
C. G. Morris.....	Washington, N. C.
C. D. Koonce.....	Chadbourn, N. C.

and they stand ready and willing to do what you ask of them.

Finally, we beg that each pastor and lay leader insist or at least urge the people to have an every-member canvass, weekly offering, etc. And may next year find us in better shape financially, more conversions, and better work in the church.

We should learn our lesson well this year, for those churches who used the weekly way of giving had two-thirds to three-fourths of their funds in before the financial depression was felt.

Respectfully,

C. E. WEATHERBY, Chairman,
Y. T. ORMOND, Secretary,
Committee on Lay Activities.

[9]

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

It gives your board great pleasure to report the general condition of the Epworth League more encouraging.

During the past year there have been organized throughout the Church more than 550 Epworth Leagues, with a membership of more than fourteen thousand. The League raised a budget of $131,000; $35,000 was for missions and $5,000 was for the support of the central office. These two items represent an advance over anything the Epworth League ever did before.

In our own Conference there have been organized twenty-seven new leagues and the contribution of the leagues to missions and other purposes total $4,400.

Throughout the connection there were held during the year twenty-nine annual and State Epworth League Conferences, reaching over six thousand young people. Besides our own Annual Conference, which met in Wilmington, the League has conducted or participated in ten Institutes. An International Convention met in July last with 5,000 present.

The Epworth League rejoices in the larger freedom bestowed upon it by the General Conference. With a greatly improved financial system, a larger general board and the addition of two secretaries to the central office staff, the Epworth League sets its face toward the future in expectation of greater victories yet to come.

We earnestly ask the hearty coöperation of the Conference in the following undertakings:

1. The general observance of Anniversary Day. The second Sunday in May is the day fixed by the general board. An offering is to be taken which will be devoted entirely to organizing and building up new Epworth Leagues. A program for the service will be furnished by the central office at one dollar per hundred.

2. The payment early in January of the chapter membership fee of $2.50 by every Epworth League of whatever kind or grade. This uniform, minimum fee has been substituted for the cumbersome and unwelcome ten-cent assessment. After January 1st it will be the main and, for several months, the sole source of income to the central office. The importance of prompt remittances cannot, therefore, be too strongly emphasized.

3. The holding of Epworth League Institutes throughout the Conference as formerly in conjunction with institutes held in the interest of the Sunday School.

4. The making of the Epworth League Conference of 1915, which meets in Hamlet June 9-13, the greatest young people's conference that has ever been held in the State. We urge our pastors to come. We urge them to bring companies of their young people with them. We urge them to send creditable delegations. The result upon their efficiency among the active forces in the congregation will justify the wisdom of this course.

In closing we plead for the loyal support of this body of the cabinet of the Epworth League Conference, headed by Mr. W. A. Graham, of Warrenton, N. C., and for its weekly reading of the League columns in the Raleigh Christian Advocate, edited by Rev. W. A. Cade, whose fitness for such a position is conclusively shown in this week's Advocate. We ask that the board be allowed to alternate with the Conference Executive Board every other year in its anniversary, beginning with 1915.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. J. M. Culbreth as Assistant Secretary Epworth Leagues.

A. J. PARKER, Chairman.

W. H. BROWN, Secretary.

[10]

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

Your Committee on Church Property begs leave to submit the following report:

There were five new churches built during the year and two parsonages. We now have in the North Carolina Conference 741 churches valued at $2,511,653. There are 178 parsonages valued at $425,512. Indebtedness on churches, $101,067.

Indebtedness on parsonages, $30,952. Other church property to amount of $74,893. Expended on churches and parsonages during the year $160,827.

Your committee earnestly urges that all pastors use their influence in seeing that trust clause be inserted in all deeds in the future, and as far as possible have trust clause inserted in all present deeds which deeds fail to show same.

Your committee appeals to every pastor to look closely after the insurance on churches and parsonages. Our insurance on churches and parsonages in the North Carolina Conference amounts to the small sum of $836,324.

CHAS. A. JONES, Chairman.

Z. V. SNIPES, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

We, your committee, submit the following as our report:

We note with interest and gratitude the marked growth in usefulness and work of the American Bible Society, with its nine home and twelve foreign agencies.

The outstanding fact of the past year as shown in the ninety-eighth annual report is the remarkable increase in the issues of the society. Both in the United States and in the foreign lands there has been an unrivaled call for the Scriptures issued by the society. There was a notable advance in Scripture distribution during the year. The total issue was 5,251,176, an increase of nearly one and a quarter million. And, too, there is an increase in circulation. And it is a noteworthy and significant fact that both the issues and circulation of the foreign agencies exceeded the number of the home agencies. This indicates that there is an increasing desire for the Scriptures among the people of Latin-America and the non-Christian nations.

The revival of learning and growing desire for modern education afford unprecedented opportunities for distributing God's Word. This fact places great responsibility upon the churches of Christendom to provide the needed means for supplying the hungry nations with the bread of life.

Eighteen million copies of the Scriptures in over five hundred languages were circulated last year, and still the demand grows.

The fiscal year closed with a deficit of $180,000. In view of the decreased income the society felt compelled to reduce its appropriation by more than $85,000. This is a heavy shadow in the face of the great opportunities for circulating God's Holy Word. The interest and support of the whole Church is needed.

We are not advised as to the amount contributed by this Conference the past year.

We earnestly recommend that each pastor present once a year to each congregation in his charge the claims of the American Bible Society as our Discipline directs.

Respectfully,

D. N. CAVINESS, Chairman.

J. M. WRIGHT, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Sabbath was made for man, says the Master, but God blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it. He set about it the strong hedge of strict law.

Severe were His judgments upon Israel for Sabbath desecration; and America or any other nation that proves lax in the matter of Sabbath observance will not escape His judgments, for God is no respecter of nations. We therefore urge our people to make the fullest use of the Sabbath for all wise and holy ends, and to preserve it in its integrity and observe it in the spirit of obedience to the divine will.

We urge our people to refrain from all forms of Sabbath desecration, especially from buying and selling, from frivolous pleasure seeking, from patronizing Sunday trains, Sunday excursions, and Sunday newspapers.

WHEREAS, for some forms of Sabbath breaking such as selling of foods on Sunday our State laws provide only the nominal penalty of one dollar,

Resolved, That we deem this penalty inadequate and favor a more adequate penalty for such forms of Sabbath violation.

We recommend that the General Assembly of North Carolina be hereby memorialized to enact a State-wide law for the better observance of the Sabbath and that a committee be appointed to present this memorial with a proper bill within the limits of the Constitution during the next session of the Legislature.

Above all we pledge ourselves to urge our people to cultivate and preserve a true spirit of reverence for the Sabbath, which is the best guarantee of its proper observance. We realize that upon the Sabbath and its true observance depends all that we hold dear; we therefore recognize our obligation to preserve it as sacredly as Moses preserved the tables of stone upon which were written the commandments of God.

ORPHANAGE COMMITTEE.

Your committee is glad to report continued progress in all departments of the institution.

We greatly appreciate the fact that many Sunday Schools and individuals have each assumed the support of a child, which plan we commend to our pastors and Sunday School workers and trust that they will largely increase this class of supporters.

There are several hundred needy orphan children still in the land many of whom ought to be under our care, but the 186 children now housed fill the capacity of the institution, so our present great need is more means with which to meet, care for and train this army of future men and women.

Again, we earnestly recommend that the assessment for orphanage be included in the regular budget leaving, as far as practicable, the Sunday School offerings and private donations for the growth and development of the institution.

We gladly comply with the request of the Board of Trustees in asking the Bishop to reappoint Rev. John N. Cole Superintendent.

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE HEADQUARTERS LAKE JUNALUSKA.

At the last Annual Conference which was held in Oxford a committee consisting of R. L. Flowers, W. B. Cooper, Dr. E. T. White, C. E. Weatherby, J. E. Underwood, C. S. Wallace, J. G. Brown, M. T. Plyler, L. P. Howard, M. Bradshaw was appointed to consider the proposition of establishing a North Carolina Conference headquarters at Lake Junaluska. A meeting of this committee was held in Raleigh in April. The whole question was carefully considered. It was decided to purchase a lot and erect a building. To finance the scheme we decided to issue shares of stock, par value $25, and a sub-committee consisting of R. L. Flowers, Rev. J. E. Underwood and C. E. Weatherby was appointed to present the question to the Church membership within the bounds of the Conference. The Secretary sent out a statement of the proposed enterprise and presented the question to several of the District Conferences. After a careful study of the grounds a lot was selected which combines beauty and convenience. The cost of a house of forty to forty-five rooms, furnished, running water in rooms will be not more than fourteen thousand dollars, the lot $1,000, making a total of $15,000. Up to the present time only about $1,000 has been subscribed. Your committee believes that the headquarters can be built and run in a way that can accommodate a number of our people, charging reasonable prices for lodging, which will net the stockholders about five to six per cent on their investment.

We regret to say very little interest has been manifested in the enterprise, and your committee does not feel that it can be carried to a successful conclusion unless it has the endorsement of the Conference. Your committee presents these facts in order that the Conference may take whatever action it may deem wise in regard to continuing this committee or appointing a new committee to present the question to our people.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

All communications referred to your Board of Missions have received careful consideration. From a communication to us by W. W. Pinson, General Secretary of our Parent Board, come these facts: "The demands of our mission work are growing by leaps. The past year we have added a new mission, our Congo Mission in Africa. It is not a time for indifference, and we should not be willing to stand still. We cannot, we dare not, go backward. Every voice of Providence calls us forward." There are many facts to prove that only one-tenth of our people are in any adequate sense interested in missions. How can the nine-tenths be interested in this great cause? The pastor is the keyman to the whole situation.

Because of the above facts your board urges upon every pastor the absolute necessity of securing full collections on the assessments.

The importance of the cultivation of Missions in the Sunday School can not be too strongly emphasized. Your board therefore urges every pastor to see that all his Sunday Schools observe strictly the Disciplinary requirement of having a monthly missionary day, and the amount raised that day be, as far as practicable, supplementary to the regular assessments. The safety, popularity and helpfulness of specials on Missions have been fully demonstrated, the number having reached 700, amounting in the aggregate to $150,000. Our General Secretary suggests that all specials be included in the annual budget of the board.

That the entire membership of the church be reached and their obligations to God be impressed upon them, we urge our pastors to adopt the Every Member Canvass as a means of increased missionary knowledge and collections.

Your board recommends that on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 5 and 6, 1915, at Smithfield, N. C., a mid-year joint meeting of the Board and Presiding Elders be held, to which the District Lay Leaders are invited.

Your board recommends that a Country Church Conference be held at Trinity College, and H. M. North, J. M. Ormond, and W. P. Few be appointed a committee to name the date and arrange for said Conference.

From the Joint Board of Finance we get these figures: Amount assessed for Foreign Missions for 1914, $16,500; paid, $17,952; specials, $3,506. For Home and Conference Missions, $20,700; paid, $19,123; specials, $120. These figures show a deficit of $1,357 on Home and Conference Missions. It is urgently important that this deficit be speedily removed, and that our faithful men on our Mission charges may not suffer or be embarrassed. Early collections are urged upon all our pastors.

For the ensuing year, 1915, the assessment for Foreign Missions is $19,450. The assessment for Conference Missions is $15,500. Added to this is an assessment of $6,224 for Home Missions made by the General Board, making a total of $21,724 for Conference and Home Missions. These assessments are distributed to the various districts as follows: (See District Assessments.)

The apportionment to the various Mission charges is as follows:

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your board submits the following report:

The Conference lacked $830.92 of paying as much this year as last. We feel sure this is not due to any waning interest in this great cause, but to the same cause that affected the other interests of the Church. Our people are coming more and more to realize the value of this great branch of our missionary work. Thanks to this Board, many a little church and parsonage dot our Conference, and many a happy congregation assemble to worship that otherwise would not be known. And these are turning back into our Church members and money, making every branch of the Church richer. We trust the day is not far when some of our people of means will turn over some of their money to us to help build up a substantial Loan Fund, that we may care for the needs of our people at home. This is a great need with us, for we notice that the parent board finds more needy fields elsewhere, and very little comes back to our Conference. Our present Loan Fund amounts to only $1,500.

We desire to thank those Presiding Elders who gave us a place at District Conferences to be heard, and beg that they show us the same courtesy this year. If our people will ask for more loans and less donations this fund will grow much faster.

In regard to the Washington City Church which was referred to us with the request that we devise means by which it may be raised, we recommend that Rev. D. H. Tuttle be continued as representative of this cause, and that the Presiding Elders be requested to act as a committee to coöperate with him in raising $3,526.50, which is the balance still due on our pledge of $5,000. This is to be a free-will offering and not an assessment. Apportioned among the Districts this will be as follows:

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATION.

1. In cases where a change has been made from last year's form the increase and decrease can not be given.
2. Missions in Sunday School and Euworth League in last year's report were not divided into assessment and special. In "Increase" and "Decrease" columns that fact has been taken into account.
3. Totals forwarded from one sheet to another do not always check, owing to pastor's reports showing discrepancies.
4. In keeping with the recommendation of the last General Conference the cent columns have been omitted.

Sessions of the North Carolina Conference

The North Carolina Conference was set off from the Virginia Conference in February, 1837, and in 1850, and again in 1870, North Carolina territory in the South Carolina Conference was transferred to this Conference. In 1890 North Carolina territory in the Holston Conference and in the Virginia Conference, except that beyond the Chowan River, was transferred to the North Carolina Conference, and the Conference was divided into the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. In 1894 the remaining North Carolina territory in the Virginia Conference was transferred to the North Carolina Conference.
